What is The Tom Joyner Foundation Mission?

The purpose of the Tom Joyner Foundation, Black College Scholarship fund is to raise and donate money to Historically Black Colleges and Universities in the United States of America. All funds donated will be used for higher education scholarship aid to students of need.

How can I get involved?

Participate in the Walk on August 30, 2008. Not going to be in Orlando? No problem, you can still support the efforts of the Foundation by registering and creating your personal fundraising page. Become a TJ2K Top Fundraiser and you may be eligible for top fundraising awards. Visit www.blackamericaweb.com for more information and to register.
